Instructions to candidates appearing for the examinations to be held in September 1939 and January 1940.

Candidates for Government Examinations are requested to observe the following instructions very carefully—

1. There should be maintained in the examination room.

2. Candidates should take their places in the examination hall at least five minutes before the time fixed for the beginning of the papers. Candidates presenting themselves more than half an hour after the appointed time will not be admitted to the examination hall. Candidates who are subsequently suffering from indisposition of any kind will not be admitted.

3. Candidates should bring with them to the examination hall each day of the examination their hall tickets for inspection by the Chief Superintendent.

4. Candidates are prohibited from writing upon their hall tickets or answer papers. Candidates are also prohibited from writing their names on any part of their answer books, but their register numbers should be written very distinctly on the outside of each answer book. Failure to write their register numbers may involve the rejection of answer papers.

5. Candidates are not allowed to exceed the time assigned in a paper.

6. The candidate will be allowed to leave the examination room at the expiry of at least half an hour after a question paper has been given out; and to candidate who leave the room during the period allowed for a paper will be allowed to return within that period.

7. Candidates are forbidden to ask questions of any kind during the examination. They are further forbidden to communicate with the Examiners should they do so after answers will not be valued and their names will be reported to the Examiners for disciplinary action.

8. Candidates are not allowed the use of books of any kind (except as provided in rules 9 to 11). They are also prohibited from introducing into the examination room any book or portion of a book, note, writing pad, card, board, manuscript, or paper of any description and from making use of any of them whether introduced into the room by themselves or by any other person. Candidates are prohibited from communicating with or receiving from each other, from communicating with any person other than the examination officers. Any candidate detected in the violation of these rules will be immediately sent out of the room.

of these rules will be summarily work out of the room.

fortness, and his conduct will be reported to the Registrar. Such a candidate stands the risk of having all his answer papers for the examination for which he has appeared rejected by the Syndicate and of being declared to be unfit for the University examinations for such period as the Syndicate may decide.

The use of abridged University examinations is not permitted except to students answering papers in Mathematics. The use of mathematical instruments with answering papers in Mathematics and in the Physical Sciences will be allowed. Such instruments will not be supplied by the University.

A. Clarke's Mathematical and Physical Tables will be supplied to candidates in Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Chemical Technology and Geography at the John Macdonald, 22 Abchurch Lane, (London), E.C.4. (University) and Pre-University examinations only. Candidates should not bring into the examination hall their own tables.

K. Candidates for examination in Science subjects shall submit their laboratory note-books to the Examiners concerned on the first day of the practical examination. Each of the candidates taking Biology at the main subject for B.Sc. Degree Examination must submit, at the practical examination his laboratory note-book, a collection of the stained plants collected and preserved by himself and a record of the field work. The candidate shall get back the laboratory note-books at the close of the examination.

M. Candidates are required to provide themselves with their own pens. Candidates may bring into the examination hall their own ink bottles. They must, however, use only black ink while answering their question papers.

N. Particular attention is requested to the instructions regarding rough working and loose sheets of paper printed on the back of books. All rough working must be shown on the left hand page of the answer books. Candidates must not use rough working. The number of such pages, as given in the question paper, should be noted down in the margin and in the centre of the page of the answer book just above the respective answer. No separate books for rough working will be supplied to candidates. Papers must not be detached from the answer books of candidates. If the ordinary answer books are found insufficient, additional books will be allowed and these should be securely fastened to the answer books.

O. When candidates have finished writing their answers, and wish to give up their answer books, or at the end of the period permitted for each particular paper of the examination, each should stand up in his place and remain standing until one of the superintendents has gone up to him and has taken all his answer books from him.

P. Candidates sitting for the examinations at the different centres should apply to the Chief Superintendent of the respective centre for their full tickets three days before the commencement of the respective examinations. Any particulars need to be dealt with after this time from those given in the application for the examination should be immediately reported to the Chief Superintendent by the concerned candidate.

Q. It will not be permissible for candidates to sit for the examination at a centre other than that mentioned in the application without the special permission of the University. No application for change of centre will be granted after the application has been received.

R. Candidates appearing at centres where they are not known must be prepared to satisfy the Chief Superintendent of such centres as to their identity. They shall also be required to place their answers upon the identification card-tags provided by them before the Chief Superintendent, at the respective centre. The answer from the identification card-tag is prepared and placed in the envelope of a subject or a Government Office of rank and less than that of a Sub-Magistrate.

Madras, 2nd August 1932.

Madras Commerce Report for the month of June 1932.

There were no extraordinary features in commerce during the month of June, the reappearance of the political sphere and a lowering of confidence in an improvement in the European situation, as well as the tension in the Far East, operating as a market factor. There was, however, an improvement in commercial conditions in the United States, reports from the domestic business field continuing to be satisfactory with further evidence of strong industrial activity and a growth of optimism over the grave outlook, a substantial uptick in business in June.

W. K. KUDVA,

bringing economic activity back to March levels. The Federal Reserve Board's adjusted price of production was expected to move up to 93 in June and it is probable that it will continue to increase at that rate. The Federal Reserve Board's adjusted price of production was expected to move up to 93 in June and it is probable that it will continue to increase at that rate. The Federal Reserve Board's adjusted price of production was expected to move up to 93 in June and it is probable that it will continue to increase at that rate.

The New York and Liverpool cotton markets did not undergo any very wide fluctuations during June, but in January, March-July-August futures closed at about 10 per cent during the month. Values of South Indian cotton, however, but showed little change or decline. The demand for Indian mill yarn continued to be very restricted and prices to correspond. The improvement noticed in May in the demand for Indian mill yarn was maintained and the mills were able to hold orders from the millowners. There was an improved demand for better grades towards the end of the month and values of some qualities improved. Prices of milled, ginned and pressed seed cotton underwent a slight advance. Prices of good quality seed cotton, a single run on balance, although demand was slack at some periods of the month. The price and rice markets were firm, prices improving to a small extent. The Calcutta rice market showed steady, but lower prices declined and the rice was weak. The Calcutta rice market showed steady, but lower prices declined and the rice was weak. The Calcutta rice market showed steady, but lower prices declined and the rice was weak.

Cashew.—With continued demand and increasing stocks, prices of cashewnuts registered a further rise in the early part of the month, but subsequently demand slackened and prices declined. At the end of the month, however, demand was steady and prices showed a slight improvement. The average wholesale price of standard varieties at the main producing centers was as follows:—

Per catty of 50 lb.

19th May 1935—Rs. 24-12-0 to Rs. 25-4-0,
20th June 1935—Rs. 25 to Rs. 27-2-0.

Paddy and rice.—Arrivals of paddy and rice were moderate and prices rose firm throughout the month. The average wholesale price of standard varieties at the main producing centers was as follows:—

Indian paddy per bag of 170 lb.

19th May 1935—Rs. 4-5-0 to Rs. 4-10-0,
20th June 1935—Rs. 4-6-0 to Rs. 4-12-0.

Indian rice per bag of 170 lb.

19th May 1935—Rs. 7-3-0 to Rs. 7-5-0,
20th June 1935—Rs. 7-4-0 to Rs. 7-7-0.

Bengal rice—rice, broken A-1 per bag of 200 lb.

19th May 1935—Rs. 4-10-0, Madras,
20th June 1935—Rs. 4-12-0, Madras.

Calcutta rice (Madras) broken per bag of 185 lb.

19th May 1935—Rs. 7-3-0, Madras,
20th June 1935—Rs. 7-5-0, Madras.

Cashew products.—The market for Cashew and Borepine nut showed a slight upward trend, but was quiet in heavy arrivals and lack of Indian demand, prices declined towards the end of the month. The market for Cashew nut showed a slight upward trend, but was quiet in heavy arrivals and lack of Indian demand, prices declined towards the end of the month. The market for Cashew nut showed a slight upward trend, but was quiet in heavy arrivals and lack of Indian demand, prices declined towards the end of the month.

Cotton—Tinnevely.—An exporter showed great eagerness to buy the urgent shipment to Singapore and desired such advantage of the situation and prices were driven up rapidly from about Rs. 167 to around Rs. 185 for 70 lb. This was also due to the fact that the market was very quiet and the demand was very low. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low.

Cashew.—Arrivals again were very restricted and prices were driven up rapidly from about Rs. 167 to around Rs. 185 for 70 lb. This was also due to the fact that the market was very quiet and the demand was very low. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low.

Sugar.—The depressed state of the Madras sugar market continued and prices declined considerably owing to poor demand and activity on the part of stock-holders to sell at the low rates obtainable, and the fact of the lowest of sugar prices issued by the Indian Sugar Syndicate, Limited. The Bombay market was very unsettled fluctuating daily and holders of Java sugar showed anxiety to sell in Java during the Glacéaux in price. The highest selling house standard after making a few lots of Rs. 25 per bag for Sullageaux. Prices however slightly rising to second-hand dealers purchasing fair quantities, but further improvement was discouraged by some local dealers selling their stocks at lower market rates during the month. Java direct quotations were about 3/6 to 3/8 per cwt. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low.

Tinned hides and skins.—Tinned hides and skins were very quiet and prices were driven up rapidly from about Rs. 167 to around Rs. 185 for 70 lb. This was also due to the fact that the market was very quiet and the demand was very low. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low. Prices of Rs. 181 1/2, prices of Rs. 131 1/2, prices of Rs. 124 1/2, prices of Rs. 124 1/2.

Recent past and ship news.—Trade was restricted but steady during June. The possibility of a further increase in the public sector which were due to commence early in July, brought forth several speculative orders and prices in Madras improved for all selections by 1/2 to 1 1/2 per lb. This was due to the fact that the market was very quiet and the demand was very low. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low. The market was very quiet and the demand was very low.
